About Athletes for Hope

Founded by Muhammad Ali, Andre Agassi, Mia Hamm and nine other elite athletes in 2006, Athletes for Hope (AFH) is a cause-neutral non-profit that educates, encourages, and empowers athletes to find their passions and use their time to positively engage with their communities. Over the past 15 years, AFH has educated more than 10,000 professional, Olympic, Paralympic and collegiate athletes through its Causeway workshop series, and its network includes thousands of athletes across nearly every sport. AFH's core programs focus on underserved youth physical activity and leadership, mental health, and brightening the lives of children in hospitals. Through their dedication and passion for doing good, AFH athletes have positively impacted the lives of millions around the world.

Introducing Play for Good

Athletes for Hope is excited to announce our first annual Play for Good event, an afternoon to celebrate, recognize and appreciate the power of the athletic spirit in making the world a better place. We invite you to join us in person to support our organization's efforts to educate, inspire and connect athletes to underserved communities throughout the U.S. and beyond. Entertainment, food, drinks and an opportunity to bid on an incredible assortment of auction items will be provided.
